Addiction Ministry Team

I want to serve!

- * To support recovery from addictions of all kinds.
- * To offer a non-dogmatic and welcoming environment for people who haven't felt at home in conventional recovery programs.
- * To reduce the suffering in the world.
- * To help build a strong foundation for our spiritual home.
- * But I need a flexible schedule and I can't volunteer every week.

The Addiction Ministry Team can accommodate your schedule and needs.

Do you have these skills?

Spiritually minded and interested in the life of the congregation.

Committed to creating a welcoming environment that fosters free and open spiritual and intellectual exploration.

Creating a welcoming environment, putting others at ease.

Find your perfect niche here!

Attend recovery meetings.

Be available as an occasional "host" to open the church building before an evening meeting and secure it again when the meeting ends.

Be a liaison between UUCS and Buddhist or secular recovery groups in the community .

Occasionally help distribute brochures or send emails to treatment centers to tell people about the meetings available.
