

“No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin, or his background, or his religion.

People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love.

For love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite.”

~Nelson Mandela

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Salem

5090 Center St NE, Salem, OR 97317
503.364.0932 www.uusalem.org

Diverse people. Diverse beliefs. One community.

Reviewed 2022

Service as a Spiritual Practice with the

Microfinance Team

Addressing Global Poverty
one family at a time.

I want to serve!

- Address poverty and social justice in other countries.
- Boost the livelihoods and standard of living for people in impoverished communities.
- Inform our congregation about what is happening elsewhere in the world and how our efforts make a difference to the poorest of the poor.

But

- I only have occasional free time.

Do you have these skills?

Fundraising and event planning skills

Collaborative skills and a passion to help others

Communications and writing skills

Find your perfect niche here!

Helping at our annual service and fundraiser.

Working with our team to raise funds. Meeting with our partner organization and committee members to select projects.

Writing newsletter articles about our efforts in other countries and our events.

Contact Us!

The Microfinance Team meets every 2-4 months.

Contact microfinance@uusalem.org to volunteer or for more information.